

Curriculum vitae

Proposed role in the project: EU expert/Trainer

1. Family name:	Robert
2. First names:	Boudewijn
3. Date of birth:	15-01-1965
4. Nationality:	Dutch
5. Civil status:	Married
6. Education:

Dates	Institution	Degree(s) or Diploma(s) obtained:
1993-1994	University of Groningen	Certificate - International Business Communication
1985-1991	University of Groningen	BA Contemporary History Minor subjects economics, social psychology, EU law

7. Language skills: Indicate competence on a scale of 1 to 5 (1 – excellent; 5 – basic)

Language	Reading	Speaking	Writing
Dutch	mother tongue
English	1	1	1
German	2	3	4
French	3	4	4

8. Membership of professional bodies:

Member European Movement The Netherlands, Training Advisor Segment Group, Advisor European Studies University of Amsterdam, Training and Education Advisor The Hague University of Applied Sciences, EU Advisor Netherlands Training Institute, former member of the Board of Jason Foundation for international affairs

9. Other skills: Full computer literacy

10. Present position: Director of Ecorys Academy and Director Europa-instituut.nl

11. Years within the firm: Over 3 years (Ecorys Academy) and over 5 years (Europa-instituut.nl)

12. Key qualifications (Relevant to the project):

- ◆ Almost 20 years' experience in designing, organising, managing and executing of EU training courses, varying from short (f.e. 2 days) introduction courses up to training courses of 6 months and/or advanced training course for EU professionals in the field of, amongst others, national interest representation in the EU, lobbying in Brussels, EU negotiation techniques, Presentation and communication skills, EU Presidency delivered in the Netherlands, Belgium, Poland, Romania, Georgia, Turkey, Croatia, Serbia, Montenegro, Austria, Albania.
- ◆ Almost 20 years' experience in designing and managing training programmes, leading and coordinating multi-national experts/teams, research and consultancy in EU Affairs, project management and consultancy services in EU Affairs, project and financial management of training courses and study visits organised in EU 27 and EU accession and candidate countries as the Director of Ecorys Academy and the Founder and Founder and Director of Europa-Instituut.nl
- ◆ Extensive experience in conducting Training Needs Assessments, leading the design and delivery of training programmes, and production training materials, manuals, hand-outs, presentations
- ◆ Highly experienced trainer with always the highest evaluation scores for content and presentation. Training courses are delivered about several aspects of the EU integration process, subjects covered are amongst others: EU decision making, the EU enlargement process including ENP, scenario analysis about the institutional and geographical future of the EU, EU Council simulation games, the relationship between EU policy making and local governance, national interest representation in the EU, EU negotiation techniques, the institutional framework of the EU, presentation and debating techniques, effective national EU coordination
- ◆ Highly experienced in designing innovative and interactive curricula, with several working forms like interactive lectures, individual and group assignments, interview carrousels, different cases, simulation games, group and panel discussions, scenario analysis, mapping networks etc.
- ◆ Fully familiar with Turkey's EU accession and produced publications since 2004.

13. Specific experience in the region:

Country	Dates	Country	Dates
The Netherlands	1994 – present	Lithuania	February 2008
Albania- Montenegro	June 2012	Czech Republic	June 2007, December 2007
Croatia	May 2012-present	Georgia	September 2005
Turkey	May 2012-November 2012t, December 2011, June 2007	Serbia	March 2012, October 2011, March-April 2011
Austria	October 2011, 2012	Poland	2003 / 2005
Kosovo	November 2011	Romania	2001/2003

14. Professional experience:

Date from - Date to	Location	Company & Reference person & Contact details	Position
April 2010 – present	Rotterdam The Netherlands	Ecorys Nederlands -Atze Verkennis Atze.Verkenis@ecorys.com	Director of Ecorys Academy

Ecorys Academy is a specialised training institute, providing training and interactive courses for public, private and not-for-profit organisations worldwide as part of Ecorys, combines in-house experience with the in-depth knowledge and hands on experience of our experts in the fields of research and policy advice, institutional and capacity development, communication and financing, programme management and realisation, monitoring and evaluation and EU affairs. The combination of our extensive, specialised experience and the quality of our training staff ensure you that participants will get important added value out and acquire necessary skills to optimize their professional functioning in an international context. Ecorys Academy training courses are about specific themes and policy fields:

- EU Funds management: Cost Benefit Analysis of EU Funded Projects, Intensive Summer Course on Structural Funds, SF and IPA Policies, Principles and Regulations, Programme and Project Cycle Management, Territorial Cooperation / INTERREG, PFM Support
- European Affairs: Masterclass European Effectiveness, Workshop strategic scenario analysis, Study visits to the capital of Europe: Brussels,
- Human Resources Development: Integrating Cross Cutting Themes into ESF, PCM SF and IPA for HR Development,
- Public Finance Management: Budget Analysis, Results oriented budgeting, Costing of policies and programmes, Tax Policy, Evaluation, Impact Assessment and CBA

- Evaluation and Impact Assessment: Monitoring & Evaluation, Quantitative Impact Assessment for EU Policy, Cost-Benefit Analysis,
- Private Sector and Competitiveness: Public Private Partnership, Workshop Urban Innovation,
- Urban and Rural Development: Urban Development Basic Training, Masterclass Attracting Urban Investment, Workshop Cities and the Audio visual Industry, Workshop Local Economy, Financial calculations of real estate projects, Rural Development, PCM SF and IPA for Regional and Rural Development, Cost Benefit Analysis for Development Projects
- EU Affairs EU modules and courses from basic (institutions, treaties) to advanced and skills (EU negotiation skills, lobbying in Brussels, effective national interest representation, simulation games, presentation and communication skills)

The main responsibilities of the Director of the Academy are:

- Analysing the training market (demand driven training courses)
- Development of curricula, learning materials and innovative working forms
- Project/Team leader of training courses
- Project and financial management of training courses
- Executing training courses (providing training and lectures), especially in the field of EU affairs, all training Development and implementing of (international) training courses

May 2013, EU negotiation and (pre) accession techniques, ReSPA, Montenegro, Team leader and trainer. Three day training with three local trainers (from Croatia, Macedonia and Serbia) for 20 participants from 7 Balkan countries. EU Negotiation techniques, accession techniques, administrative preparations for EU membership and simulation games.

April 2013, Matra Patrol Public Finance Management training, Asser Institute, The Hague the Netherlands: Team leader/Director of training. Responsible for the overall coordination of the 10 day training for 25 government officials from the (potential) candidate members of the EU

March 2013, EU introduction lecture, Brussels, Belgium, DG Enlargement: EU introduction lecture about the consequences of EU membership for a delegation of local authorities from Iceland

December 2012, Matra South Water training, Rotterdam, the Netherlands: Director of training and trainer. Responsible for the overall coordination of the two week training (one week in the Netherlands, one week in Tunisia), executing the module networking, for 25 participants from Morocco, Tunisia, Algeria, Jordan and Egypt.

December 2012, Matra Patrol Public European Procurement training, Asser Institute, The Hague the Netherlands Team leader/Director of training and trainer. Responsible for the overall coordination of the 10 day training for 25 government officials from the (potential) candidate members of the EU. Executing the module about EU negotiation techniques.

November 2012, Matra Patrol Public Finance Management training, Asser Institute, The Hague the Netherlands: Team leader/Director of training. Responsible for the overall coordination of the 10 day training for 25 government officials from the (potential) candidate members of the EU

November 2012, EU introduction lecture, Brussels, Belgium, DG Enlargement: EU introduction lecture about the consequences of EU membership for a delegation of local authorities from Iceland.

October 2012, International Negotiation techniques workshop – Trainer, Diplomatic Academy of Vienna, Vienna Austria: Trainer of the two days workshop for 30 civil servants from Israel, Jordan and Egypt. Participants were trained in zero-sum negotiations, mapping networks, bilateral negotiations, multilateral negotiations, presentation skills, scenario analysis, effective (international) communication styles and advocacy

October 2012, advanced EU introduction course, Trainer, Ankara, Turkey, Dutch Institute for Public Administration Four day advanced EU course for 50 civil servants and diplomats from several ministries. This course has been designed to optimize Turkish national interest representation in the EU with a focus on skills training (negotiations, lobbying etc.) and will be the standard course for all Turkish ministries the coming years.

September 2012, general EU introduction course, Trainer, Ankara, Turkey, Dutch Institute for Public Administration Four day training course for 50 trainees from several ministries. This course has been designed to be the standard EU introduction course for the whole Turkish central government

September 2012, train the trainer programme, Trainer, Zagreb Croatia, Dutch Institute for Public Administration Two day training for 10 potential Croatian trainers and 25 participants in a newly designed EU training programme that will be the standard training programme for the central government the coming years, to prepare for EU membership and to be effective in the EU after membership.

June 2012, EU crash course From outsider to Insider, AgentschapNL, Trainer, Tirana Albania Three day training course in cooperation with Polis University for 30 participants from public Administration about EU negotiation techniques, Scenario-analysis and Cost Benefit Analysis

June 2012, Training EU institutions and European negotiation techniques – Trainer, Diplomatic Academy Vienna – Montenegro: Four days training with 2 international and 1 local trainer about the role and competences of the EU institutions, effective national interest representation and EU negotiation techniques with 21 participants from 7 Balkan countries

June 2012, Training the (financial) way to Brussels – Trainer, Rijksacademie voor Financien en Economie - The Hague, The Netherlands: Two day course about the functioning of the EU, EU decision making procedures and a financial EU Council simulation game about the Europe 2020 Strategy for 25 civil servants from the Ministries of Economy and Finance (once a year since 2008)

May 2012- September 2012, intensive spring course Instrument for Pre Accession/Structural Funds, Team leader/lead trainer, Brussels, Belgium: One week training course in Brussels, open subscription at Ecorys office Brussels, Belgium, with 10 participants from public administration from: Kosovo, Montenegro, Serbia and Romania. Main topics of the course were: EU negotiations techniques, strategic planning, programming, monitoring and evaluation, EU project development and networking and presentation

April 2012, EU integration and institutions training, European Studies, University of Amsterdam, Trainer, University of Amsterdam - Amsterdam, The Netherlands: EU integration and institutions training, European Studies, University of Amsterdam Trainer in the MA course Political and Business Cultures in Europe for 35 students about effective interest representation in the European arena Amsterdam, (since 2008)

March 2012, EU negotiation skills and interest representation, Trainer, Ecorys Academy on behalf of the Diplomatic Academy of Vienna - Belgrade, Serbia: Trainer Two day training for 25 national, regional or local authorities of Serbia about effective interest representation, EU negotiation techniques, lobbying in Brussels and communication and presentation skills

January 2012, EU module in the Public Management Course of the School of Management - Team leader and trainer, Academy for Management - Groningen/Epe, The Netherlands: Team leader and trainer of the two days EU module of the Public Strategy Course, consisting of 9 modules in total in one year, for, on average, 20 participants. This course prepares the participants, from local, regional and national public administration, for (future) management positions and leadership. The EU modules (with several guest lecturers) deals with the main EU treaties, the relationship between national/regional policy making and EU policy making, effective national EU coordination, EU policy making, interview carousel with EU lobbyists and a scenario exercise about the future of the EU. (January 2012, June 2011, twice a year since 2007)

December 2011, EU introduction and Instrument for Pre Accession training for the National Agency - Trainer, National Agency - Ankara, Turkey: One week training for appr. 30 participants from the National Agency, The institute that coordinates the EU Socrates Programme for Turkey. Main topics were EU history, relationship Turkey-EU, the European decision making procedures, role and competences of the EU institutions and EU negotiation techniques.

November 2011, MATRA Training for European Cooperation (MTEC) Instrument for Pre Accession (IPA) - Team leader/lead trainer, Agentschapnl.nl - Rotterdam, The Netherlands: Two week training for 50 participants on behalf of Agentschapnl and MFA the Netherlands. The general objective of MTEC is to create and strengthening of the networks among the participating countries (East-East Network). To develop an extensive exchange of experience and cooperate with the Dutch Government sector and colleagues in the participating countries, contributing to the process of integration of the applicable countries into the EU. The specific objective of this training is to develop knowledge, attitude and skills of project pipeline developers, programme implementers and managers in the field of the policy life cycle of IPA management (programme management, programming, implementation, project pipeline creation, project appraisal, monitoring and evaluation, financial management, negotiations, the EU context), so that they feel confident in their job and can act as "change agent" by sharing their knowledge back home. Special emphasis put in co-operation and the exchange of experiences among the countries concerned which are at different stages of the EU accession and European integration processes. The training is designed for 50 experts and executives from ministries, managing authorities, administrations and organisations that work on EU funds management. The target group of the training is the staff working in the field of IPA from Current Candidate Countries: Croatia, Macedonia, Montenegro and Turkey and Potential Candidate Countries: Albania, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Kosovo and Serbia

November 2011, Negotiations and effective advocacy for RDA's in Kosovo – Senior Non Key Expert, EURED TA - Pristina, Kosovo
 Technical Assistance to Support the EU Regional Development in Kosovo. Advocacy and negotiations training for 30 representatives of Regional Development Agencies. Two day skills training: bilateral negotiations, multilateral negotiations, presentation and debating techniques and effective interest representation.

October 2011, International Negotiation techniques workshop – Trainer, Diplomatic Academy of Vienna, Vienna Austria: Trainer of the two days workshop for 25 civil servants and master student diplomats from Israel, Jordan and Egypt. Participants were trained in zero-sum negotiations, mapping networks, bilateral negotiations, multilateral negotiations, presentation skills, scenario analysis, effective (international) communication styles and advocacy.

September 2011, EU negotiation skills and international interest representation in the EU – Trainer, Ecorys Academy on behalf of the Diplomatic Academy of Vienna - Belgrade Serbia: Two day training for 25 national, regional or local authorities of Serbia about effective national interest representation, EU negotiation techniques, lobbying in Brussels and communication and presentation skills

April 2011, Quantative Impact Assessment training for EU funded projects – Team leader, The Office of the Prime Minister of the Republic of Lithuania - Rotterdam, The Netherlands and Brussels, Belgium: One week course in Rotterdam and Brussels for 4 participants from the Prime Minister's office. Content of the course was about several models for quantitative analysis, impact assessments and the EU context (competences institutions, treaties and their consequences) and a working visit to Brussels

February 2011, Cost Benefit Analysis course for EU funded projects - Team leader/trainer, Ecorys Academy on behalf of Ecorys Brussels - Brussels, Belgium: Three day open subscription course in Brussels for 15 participants from Croatia, Serbia, Luxembourg, Belgium, Poland and France. Participants were trained to be able to apply a correct CBA in an European context.

Date from - Date to	Location	Company & Reference person & Contact details	Position
January 2009 - April 2010	Breukelen, The Netherlands	Nyenrode Business University Prof. Dr. Desiree van Gorp d.vgorp@nyenrode.nl	University lecturer European Affairs/ Director European Business Institute

Development of the one year course "Being Effective in Europe" with 7 modules spread over one year (The EU context, Effective EU management, EU funding, Communication, presentation and negotiation skills, study visit to Brussels and lobbying in Brussels). Lecturing EU affairs for University students for the Dutch Police Academy. Lecturer in several MBA programs and other university studies. Restructuring International MBA Nyenrode Business University Developing and implementing a total restructured curriculum, with three foreign study visits of 2 weeks each, and new learning materials and working method. New in the curriculum is the EU module of one week, dealing with all aspects of EU integration (decision making, lobbying, negotiations, scenario-analysis etc) and a study visit to Brussels of 2 days, visiting European Parliament, European Commission, BusinessEurope, Permanent Representation of the Netherlands and the Public Affairs firm Freshfields.

Date from - Date to	Location	Company & Reference person & Contact details	Position
Month 2008- present	Amsterdam, The Netherlands	Europa-Instituut.nl Rob Boudewijn info@robboudewijn.eu www.robboudewijn.eu	Director and Founder

The Europa-instituut.nl is a networking organization that in cooperation with other educational and training institutes develops and implements EU training courses for especially the educational sector from basic to advanced (EU negotiation techniques, Lobbying in Brussels etc.) The Europa-institute.nl cooperates with, amongst others, all Dutch universities, the Dutch Institute for Public Administration ROI, the Dutch School for Public Administration NSOB, Campus The Hague, College of Europe, Vienna Diplomatic Academy, College of Europe, London School of Diplomacy several other educational institutes and think tanks. Furthermore the Europa-instituut.nl is involved in several consultancy projects (Croatia, April-December 2012, Turkey, May-November 2012)

April 2013, European Union Studies module for the Avans University of Applied Sciences, Breda, Two days module for 80 international students about negotiation techniques, interest representation and a simulation game, to be prepared with a diplomatic paper.

February–April 2013 EU Module for the State Trainees of the Dutch national public administration - Team leader/trainer, Campus The Hague, Leiden University - The Hague, The Netherlands: 3 x 1 day EU module of the State Trainees in their educational and training programme of two years. Responsible for the EU module for starters (1 days), that deals with the basics of the EU (treaties, institutions, decision making) and for the module for trainees with EU knowledge. The content of the last one is about national interest representation in the EU, the importance of national EU coordination and how to write an EU policy note. The last day is a workshop focused on EU negotiation techniques, with several interactive working forms like simulation games

February–March 2013, EU module, including negotiation techniques and scenario analysis, London, London Academy for Diplomacy
 Four day training for 40 students and young diplomats from 18 countries about effective national interest representation, EU negotiation and lobby skills, scenario analysis about the future of the EU and a simulation game.

January 2013, EU effectiveness training for potential new managers of the Dutch central government, Brussels, Avicenna Two day training for 25 participants about advocacy, EU negotiation techniques, conditions for effective Public Affairs, lobby- and presentation skills

January 2013, EU introduction training, Groningen, the Netherlands, Academy for Management: One day EU introduction training for managers from regional and local governance.

December 2012-January 2013, negotiations training and effective interest representation in the EU, The Hague, the Netherlands, The Hague University for applied Sciences: Six modules of 1 day for 150 students European law, covering the informal EU decision making procedures, bilateral and multilateral negotiation techniques, the importance of a clear mandate, simulation games and networking assignments, including appointments in Brussels

December 2012-January 2013,, EU negotiations training, Nijmegen, the Netherlands, Radboud University: Three modules of two days for 75 students European affairs about communication and negotiation skills, effective interest representation in Brussels, scenario analysis about the future of the EU and a Council working group simulation

November 2012, The EU in a bird eyes view, ROI, The Hague the Netherlands, one day EU introduction training for civil servants from four provinces

April – November 2012 , Technical Assistance for development of a national training strategy to enhance administration capacities of public institutions in the context of accession negotiations and implementation of its pilot modules FWC Beneficiaries 2009 Lot 7, Governance and Home Affairs (EuropeAid/127054/C/SER/Multi) – Lead Trainer, ROI – Ankara, Turkey

Development of a standard EU training for Turkish national administration and a specific training with the focus on Turkey-EU relations. Both training courses will be delivered two times in September and October 2012 (Ankara, May 2012-present).

April 2012 – present, Technical Assistance project Capacity building for the State School for Public Administration and support in development of EU training programmes - Croatia, (MAT/11/HR/8/9) – Lead trainer, ROI - Zagreb, Croatia: with the Dutch Institute for Public Administration Development of a standard EU training for the State School for Public Administration and a train the trainer programme. The standard EU training will become obligatory for the national public administration in Croatia from autumn 2012 onwards

March 2012, EU introduction training for local authorities (provinces and municipalities) – Senior Associate Lecturer, Dutch Institute for Public Administration ROI - The Hague, The Netherlands: One day introductory training for 22 representatives of local authorities about the EU institutions and their competences and their relationship with local authorities, including implementing and controlling EU legislation at the local level.

March 2012, EU module in the International MBA of Nyenrode Business University - Team leader and lead trainer, Nyenrode Business University - Breukelen, The Netherlands and Brussels, Belgium: Team leader and lead trainer in the EU module of one week in the international MBA for 35 students from 28 countries. This module consists of 3 days training, covering all aspects of the EU integration process, negotiation techniques, interviews with EU lobbyists, several cases and simulations and a two days visit to Brussels, where the EU institutions have been visited, Permanent Representations and several EU public affairs organizations. The students have to produce a final academic paper (10 pages) in which they make a SWOT-analysis of the "Europeanization" of a certain professional sector.

February – April 2012, EU Module for the State Trainees of the Dutch national public administration - Team leader/trainer, Campus The Hague, Leiden University - The Hague, The Netherlands: 2 x 2 days EU module of the State Trainees in their educational and training programme of two years. Responsible for the EU module for starters (2 days), that deals with the basics of the EU (treaties, institutions, decision making) and for the module for trainees with EU knowledge. The content of the last one is about national EU coordination, how to write an EU policy note, national interest representation in the EU and EU simulation games (The Hague, February-April 2012, every year since 2000)

February-March 2012, EU module for students Public Management of Avans University of Applied Sciences - Trainer, Avans University of Applied Sciences - Den Bosch, The Netherlands: Trainer in the EU module of 4 days, spread over 4 weeks, for 50 students, about the present functioning of the EU, the future debate, EU negotiation skills and an EU Council simulation game. (Since 2008)

November 2011-February 2012, EU module for Students European law of The Hague University of Applied Sciences - Team leader and lead trainer, The Hague University of Applied Sciences - The Hague, The Netherlands: Team leader and lead trainer of the EU course in the study European Law of the Hague University of applied Sciences for appr. 80 students every year and a train the trainer programme for the Academic staff. The course consists of 6 days of teaching in a period of 3 months with topics as the EU institutions and their competences, introduction to the main Treaties, historical timeline analysis, the (informal) decision making procedures in the EU, EU negotiation techniques and an EU Council simulation, prepared by the students on the basis of a diplomatic paper. (The Hague, November 2011/February 2012, every year since 2006)

Date from - Date to	Location	Company & Reference person & Contact details	Position
1999-2008	The Hague, The Netherlands	Netherlands Institute of International Relations Clingendael Ms Suzan J. Nollen, sinollen@clingendael.nl	Senior Fellow, Deputy Director (ad interim) Clingendael European Studies Program

Senior Fellow trainer and deputy director (ad interim) of the Clingendael European Studies Programme. Development, management and implementing/executing of various EU courses, including the development of interactive and innovative curricula, working forms, learning materials and simulation games, research on several aspects of the EU integration process, focus on Enlargement and the position of Turkey. Project leader of:

- 9 MTEC How to Operate in Brussels courses of 2 weeks for 100 participants each time. Course about effective national interest representation (negotiations-, communicating and presentation skills) for civil servants/diplomats from the new & candidate countries of the EU. For several countries participation of their civil servants in this course was obligatory before being posted at the Mission or Permanent Representation in Brussels
- 6 MTEC Social Affairs/Employment courses of 3 weeks with 50 participants from the new and candidate countries of the EU,
- 2 How to Co-operate with Brussels courses of 2 weeks with 40 participants from the European Neighbourhood countries (Russia, Belarus, Moldova, Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia),
- 1 alumni course How to Operate in Brussels of 1 week for 50 participants
- 1 in-company course of one week How to Operate in Brussels in Poland.

Furthermore on average 15 EU training courses a year, varying from 2 days to 6 months for Dutch ministries, foreign diplomats, in-company in Georgia, Turkey, Croatia, Germany, Belgium, Hungary, Czech Republic and Ireland,

Date from - Date to	Location	Company & Reference person & Contact details	Position
1994-1998	Haarlem The Netherlands	European Platform for Dutch Education Jan Willem Wilknes Wilkens@epf.nl	Project Officer Responsible from Training Programs

Development and implementing/ various international training courses for the educational sector and organizing of international study visits. Founder of the European Academy, a one year learning and exchange program (UK, NL and Spain).

Evaluation of training programs, including financial reporting See: <http://www.europeesplatform.nl/sf.mcqj?762&cat=155>

15. Other relevant information: (e.g. Publications)

- Rob Boudewijn & Esther Versluis (eds.), European Public Affairs in the 21st Century (book, forthcoming summer 2013)
- Rob Boudewijn, The European Neighbourhood Policy: economic and political prospects (book, forthcoming)
- Rob Boudewijn & Marcel Canoy, Europa als verkiezingsonderwerp: het werd tijd (Europa as elections item: it's about time) June 2012
- Rob Boudewijn, Naar een federale dan wel intergouvernementele Euro (towards a federal or intergovernmental Euro?) 9December 2011),
- Rob Boudewijn en Marcel Canoy, 'Ga pragmatisch om met nationalisme', (Manage nationalism pragmatic), in: Het Financieel Dagblad, 8 Dec2010
- Rob Boudewijn en Donatello Piras, 'Help het Europees Parlement er bovenop', (Help the European Parliament to recover) (September 2009),
- Rob Boudewijn, 'The perspective of EU membership for the Balkan: a bumpy road?', European Policies Commentary Series, # 2 (forthcoming)
- Rob Boudewijn, 'The EU and Turkey, Turkey and the EU: from crisis to crisis?', European Policies Commentary Series # 1 (August 2009)
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Quo vadis Europe' (May-June 2009),
- Rob Boudewijn, Jan Rood, Louise van Schaik en Mirte van den Berg, 'Nederlandse beleidsvoorkeuren in Europees beleid: idealisme of pragmatisme?', (Dutch policy preferences in European policy making: idealism or pragmatism?, in: Bestuurskunde nr 2 (June 2009) p. 20-32
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Vijf jaar Europees Nabuurschapsbeleid' (Five years of European Neighbourhood Policy), in: Openbaar Bestuur (mei 2009)
- Rob Boudewijn & Hans Bossert, 'Snelle toetreding Turkije economische zegen voor Europa' (fast entrance of Turkey is an economic blessing for Europe), in: Jason Magazine, March 2009
- Mendeltje van Keulen, Rob Boudewijn, Jurriaan Middelhof, Alfred Pijpers & Jan Rood, 'The Netherlands' in: EU 27 watch, September 2008
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Bulgarse strafkorting symboolpolitiek', in: EBN Nieuwsbrief (September 2008),
- Rob Boudewijn & Janis Emmanouilidis, 'How to proceed after the Irish No?' Clingendael Commentary # 5, 9 July 2008
- Rob Boudewijn, Evelyn van Kampen en Jan Rood, 'Exploring the scope of the European Neighbourhood Policy', 11 April 2008
- Rob Boudewijn, 'De Europese Unie, Frankrijk en Turkije: een impasse zonder uitweg? (the European Union, France and Turkey: an impasse without a way out?)', CESP Commentaar 5, 10 December 2007
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Grenzen aan de groei: kroniek van een vroegtijdige dood? (The borders of further enlargement have been reached?)', In: Checks & Balances, December 2007
- Jan Rood, Thomas Rieu en Rob Boudewijn, 'Van EU-partnerschap tot –lidmaatschap, veel etiketten voor één envelop', (from EU-partnership towards membership: much names for one envelop) in: Internationale Spectator, September 2007
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Premier juicht te vroeg met verdrag', (prime minister claims victory too early with new treaty) in: Trouw, 28 June 2007
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Wie vandaag een ei steelt, steelt morgen een os: Roemenië na toetreding tot de Europese Unie' (who steals an egg today, will steal an cow tomorrow: Romania after the entrance to the EU) in: Internationale Spectator, June 2007
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Turkije: is het glas half leeg of half vol? (respon's) (Turkey, is the glass half empty or half full?)', in: Internationale Spectator, Apr2007
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Leg druk niet telkens eenzijdig bij Turkije' (Do not put the pressure every time at the side of Turkey only), Staatscourant, 3 Jan 2007
- Rob Boudewijn, 'The EU and Turkey, Turkey and the EU: where to go from here?', 20 December 2006 Rob Boudewijn, 'De EU en Turkije, Turkije en de EU; hoe nu verder?', 15 november 2006
- Rob Boudewijn: De Europese Unie en Roemenië: is uitstel zinvol? (The EU and Romania: is postponement useful?), in: Internationale Spectator, September 2006
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Europa, wat is dat?' (Europe, what is that?), in: Jason Magazine, August 2006
- Mendeltje van Keulen en Rob Boudewijn, 'Stuurloos Europadebat: geen Europese Zaken in Balkenende III' (No Europe debate in the government Balkenende III), in: Staatscourant, 26 July 2006
- Rob Boudewijn, 'EU zit omhoog met toelating Roemenië' (EU confused about the entrance of Romania), in: Trouw, 23 May 2006
- Rob Boudewijn, 'Quo Vadis Europa?', in: Testbeeld Europa, 31 March 2006
- Louise van Schaik en Rob Boudewijn, 'Grondwet: raadpleeg kiezer opnieuw over Europa' (Constitution: ask the voter again about their opinion), in: Trouw, 15 February 2006
- Rob Boudewijn en Jan Rood, 'NEEderland ontLEED' (Dutch sorrow about the No vote during the referendum), in: Jason Magazine, October 2005
- R. Boudewijn en M. van Keulen, 'Op zoek naar de wortels van NEEderland' (The source of the No vote in the Netherlands), in: Openbaar Bestuur, October 2005
- Mendeltje van Keulen en Rob Boudewijn, 'Waar houdt "Europa"op? : over de grenzen van Europa' (Where does Europe ends? About the borders of Europe), in: Internationale Spectator, July-August 2005

- R. Boudewijn, 'Nee van vandaag stoelt op afkeer en wantrouwen' (No of today based on distrust), in: Trouw, 1 June 2005
- R. Boudewijn en M. van Keulen, "Referendum over Europa is vlees noch vis: de Europese Grondwet" (referendum about constitution not useful, no fish nor meat), in: Trouw, 5 February 2005
- Rob Boudewijn en Peter van Grinsven, 'Geloofwaardigheid boven sentimenten' (Credibility over sentiments, the case of Turkey), in: Internationale Spectator, September 2004
- Mendeltje van Keulen en Rob Boudewijn, 'Roemenië: te laat en te langzaam (repliek)' (Romania: too late, too slow), in: Internationale Spectator, September 2004
- Rob Boudewijn en Mendeltje van Keulen, 'Roemenië: het te korte decennium tot 2007' (Romania: the decennium to 2007 is too short), in: Internationale Spectator, March 2004
- R. Boudewijn, 'Haalt Roemenië 2007?' (Will Romania be ready in 2007?), in: Jason Magazine, nummer 1 2004
- Rob Boudewijn en Mendeltje van Keulen, 'Het EU-referendum als paard van Troje' (The EU-referendum as an Trohjan horse), in: Staatscourant, 10 December 2003
- Rob Boudewijn (e.d.) Een nieuw Marshall plan voor Europa? (A new Marshall-plan for Europe?) (Alkmaar 1998)
- Rob Boudewijn, Het Finse onderwijssysteem (The Finnish educational system) (Alkmaar 1997)
- Aside from the above also approximately 25 book reviews written for various periodicals. Regular commentator in Dutch media (radio and TV) about current developments in the EU